

Soilmec India Earns ISO Certification

As an honorable step ahead to excellence within the infrastructural industry Soilmec India has earned International Organization for Standardization (ISO) 9001:2008 registrations for Quality Management Standards

Soilmec India, a full spectrum provider of foundation equipment for the ground engineering industry, recently announced that the company is now ISO 9001:2008 certified. The certification for Soilmec extends to the activities of "manufacturers and suppliers of piling and ground drilling equipment tools". This certification serves as a source of reference for quality policies and procedures set standard is a demanding certification level with stringent auditing, management reviews, and process improvements. The standard identifies requirements designed to help companies create and maintain procedures to ensure quality in their products and services.

About Soilmec India:

Established as a composite subsidiary of Soilmec Hong Kong (fully owned company of Soilmec S.p.A), an Italian manufacturer of foundation equipments under the aegis of the Trevi Group, Soilmec Foundation Equipments Private Ltd came into inception in September 2006 and got its certificate of incorporation as a trading and manufacturing company on January 24th, 2007. Soilmec India is a full spectrum provider for foundation equipments for the ground engineering industry with a service portfolio that includes an integration of design, manufacturing and distribution processes. Soilmec India offers repair and maintenance services for all equipments sold by the company, as well as services such as a direct customer-care number and specialised service representatives dedicated

"We are delighted to have achieved the ISO certification. We strive to continuously improve the effectiveness of services and quality for our customers. "ISO 9001:2008 is a significant achievement in our journey to being a key manufacturer and supplier in the infrastructure industry".

Mr. Sanjoy Chakrabarty, Managing Director, Soilmec India

out by Soilmec, India in its aim to achieve and maintain the quality of its products and services. It provides an opportunity for Soilmec's customer or official authorities to measure or audit the quality system of Soilmec India.

About ISO 9001:2008 Certification

ISO 9001:2008 provides a set of requirements that must be in place to have an approved quality management system, regardless of the organization's size, product or service line, or public or private status.

Established by the International Standards Organization, this quality management system sets a global standard for quality assurance processes to ensure that a company's products and services are among the best in the world. The ISO 9001:2008 to specific technical processes. The manufacturing operations of the company are carried out of its 25,000 sq. ft. factory based in Vasai that facilitates a monthly output of 35-40 tonnes of steel products in addition to operating a fully equipped machine-repair facility within the premises. The company's portfolio offers a range of 20 machines from 20 tons to 140 tons, along with drilling piles, from 400mm up to 3000 mm diameters in capacity. With about 200 rigs of various types working across India including that of micro piling and fore piling, Soilmec India is working in all major projects in Burnpur, Jamshedpur, Rihand, Vindhyachal, Mumbai metros, Mumbai Monorail, Paradeep, Mansa, Damanjodi, TataNagar, Anpara etc. The company has its headquarters at Thane in Mumbai.